Notes to Editors

1. The timetable set out above is indicative. It may expand or contract as circumstances dictate. Also, the Tribunal is prepared to accept changes to the timetable that are agreed between the relevant parties and do not disturb the overall plan. If, for instance, those representing either civilians or soldiers wish to agree among themselves a different order or distribution of time, the Tribunal is likely to accommodate it provided it is clearly understood the parties are not at liberty to avoid answering the Tribunal's questions by truncating the time available for asking them.
2. The Tribunal usually sits from 09.30 to 12.00 and from 12.45 to 15.00 (later if required).
